Dear Lord,
 There's a young man or woman far from home, called to serve their nation in a difficult time; sent to defend our freedom on some distant foreign shore.

We pray You keep them safe, We pray You keep them strong, we pray You send them safely home, For they've been away so long.

Bless those who await their safe return and those who mourn the lost.

Bless those who serve this country well, no matter what the cost.

Amado Se6or,

Hay un joven o una mujer lejos de casa, llamado a servir a su naci6n en tiempos dif6ciles; enviado para defender nuestra libertad en alguna costa extranjera distante.

Oramos Para que los mantengas a salvo, Rezamos Para que los mantengas fuertes, rezamos Para que los env6es sanos y salvos a casa, porque han estado fuera tanto tiempo. Bendice a los que esperan su regreso seguro y a los que lloran a los perdidos.

Bendice a los que sirven bien a este pa6s, no importa el costo.

PRAYER IN TIMES OF DARKNESS

Dear Jesus, When I feel troubled, alone, frightened, be with me. Be a flicker of flame in this darkness. Help me to know you in the stark seasons as I do in times of elation. You are the light I seek. Amen. ©LPi

ORACI6N EN TIEMPOS DE OSCURIDAD

Querido Jes6s, Cuando estoy preocupado, solo, y asustado, acompa6ame. Ay6dame a conocerte en los tiempos duros como lo hago en tiempos de j6bilo. T6 eres la luz que yo busco. Amen.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
 By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Twist Ending

Any reader of psychological thrillers will come across the "dead main character trope" fairly often. This is the famous Sixth Sense twist ending (I would say "spoiler alert," but the movie is older than most of the people who work in Youth Ministry at your archdiocese, so you've probably seen it by now) where the reader finds that the main character has been dead for all or most of the story. I'm always a little disappointed when this happens. It delivers shock value, sure, but it also undermines everything that happens in the story. You've come on a journey with this character, only to find out that nothing you saw transpire was real in the way you thought it was. You feel a little stupid, because the whole time you only had part of the truth. I suspect Jesus knows this about us. He knows we don't like to have the rug pulled out. It's why he is so up-front about his humanity following the resurrection. See how Jesus, resurrected, shows the disciples his feet, his hands. See how he asks them for food and lets them watch him eat it. See how this creates in them an understanding, a belief.

The humanity of Jesus Christ is absolutely crucial. It's what bridges the divide between the sons of Eve and the God she defied. Our reconciliation with God cannot happen unless human flesh pays the price that will balance the scales. Human flesh: skin that can tear and bleed, bones that can break, a mouth that can thirst, a stomach that can ache with hunger. The passion and death of Jesus Christ is not a thriller with a twist ending: he was a ghost the whole time! The twist, if anything, is this: he was human the whole time. "Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." — Luke 24:39—@LPi

(PRACTICANDO) CAT6LICA: RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS
 Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

El Giro Final

Cualquier lector de novelas de suspenso psicol6gicos se encontrar6 con bastante frecuencia con el "tropo del personaje principal muerto." Este es el famoso final del Sexto Sentido (yo dir6a "alerta de spoiler," pero la pel6cula es m6s antigua que la mayor6a de las personas que trabajan en el Ministerio Juvenil en tu arquidi6cesis, as6 que probablemente ya la hayas visto) donde el lector encuentra que el personaje principal ha estado muerto durante toda o la mayor parte de la historia. Siempre me siento un poco decepcionada cuando esto sucede. Ofrece un valor impactante, claro, pero tambi6n socava todo lo que sucede en la historia. Has emprendido un viaje con este personaje, solo para descubrir que nada de lo que viste fue real de la manera que pensabas. Te sientes un poco est6pido, porque todo el tiempo s6lo tuviste parte de la verdad. Sospecho que Jes6s sabe esto acerca de nosotros. 6l sabe que no nos gusta que nos "muevan el tapete." Es por eso que es tan sincero acerca de su humanidad despu6s de la resurrecci6n. Mira c6mo Jes6s, resucitado, muestra a los disc6pulos sus pies, sus manos. Mira c6mo les pide comida y les deja verlo comer. Ves c6mo esto crea en ellos una compresi6n, una creencia.

La humanidad de Jesucristo es absolutamente crucial. Es lo que cierra la brecha entre los hijos de Eva y el Dios que ella desaf6. Nuestra reconciliaci6n con Dios no puede ocurrir a menos que la carne humana pague el precio que equilibrar6 la balanza. Carne humana: piel que puede desgarrarse y sangrar, huesos que pueden romperse, una boca que puede tener sed, un est6mago que puede doler de hambre. La pasi6n y muerte de Jesucristo no es una novela de suspenso con un final inesperado: ¡fue un fantasma todo el tiempo! El giro, en todo caso, es este: fue humano todo el tiempo. "T6quenme y conv6nzanse: un fantasma no tiene ni carne ni huesos, como ven que tengo yo." — Lucas 24:39—@LPi

CHILDREN'S CHOIR DIRECTOR WANTED

St. Ann Music Ministry would like to build a Parish Children's Choir starting in the fall of 2024. To do that we are looking for someone to lead our wonderful children in praise and worship through song. This person should first and foremost have a desire to work with children but also have a musical background and be able to teach the choir about cantoring and singing properly. If you have questions or would be interested in directing the children's choir or assisting the director, please contact Misty West-Bruna, Music Ministry Coordinator, at music\_ministry@parishofsaintann.org.

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Greetings from Ridgecrest: Let us resume with the quotes from the priests' retreat: The next quote is, "A bad start is a quick finish (Irish Saying)." This quote can mean that we learn from our mistakes. We are not perfect; we are sinners. We are not gods. Although Jesus tells us to be perfect as our Father is perfect, we still need His help (Matthew 5:48). Before I learned to ride a bicycle, I felled multiple times. It was painful, but I was able to enjoy riding a bike. Before I learned to drive a stick shift vehicle, I had to grind the gears. As a result, it felt great to be able to drive a stick shift vehicle. I felt more in control, as I shifted the gears. Similarly, when we learn a new language, we make a lot of mistakes. Moreover, it is great to be able to learn a new language and to communicate it. In other words, we reap the good harvest after having sweated for many days (John 4:37). As we grow older, we should get wiser. As we get older, we should be more knowledgeable. However, in our current culture, we seem to be going backwards. The older we get, the dumber we get. As a result, we should follow our faith and our God. We can never fail when we follow Jesus and the Church. God has never failed us. We fail God when we don't follow Him. When we follow God, we will reap fruit. We will be smart and intelligent (Deuteronomy 4:6). Let us continue to be smart and intelligent by following our faith and God. May the Lord, bless you.

Saludos desde Ridgecrest: Resumamos con las citas del retiro de los sacerdotes: La siguiente cita es: "Un mal comienzo es un final rápido (Refrán irlandés)". Esta cita puede significar que aprendemos de nuestros errores. No somos perfectos; Somos pecadores. No somos dioses. Aunque Jesús nos dice que seamos perfectos como nuestro Padre es perfecto, todavía necesitamos Su ayuda (Mateo 5:48). Antes de aprender a andar en bicicleta, me caí varias veces. Fue doloroso, pero pude disfrutar montando en bicicleta. Antes de aprender a conducir un vehículo con palanca de cambios, tenía que rectificar las marchas. Como resultado, se sintió muy bien poder conducir un vehículo con palanca de cambios. Me sentí más en control, mientras cambiaba de marcha. Del mismo modo, cuando aprendemos un nuevo idioma, cometemos muchos errores. Además, es genial poder aprender un nuevo idioma y comunicarlo. En otras palabras, cosechamos la buena cosecha después de haber sudado durante muchos días (Juan 4:37). A medida que envejecemos, debemos ser más sabios. A medida que envejecemos, deberíamos estar más informados. Sin embargo, en nuestra cultura actual, parece que estamos retrocediendo. Cuanto más envejecemos, más tontos nos volvemos. Como resultado, debemos seguir nuestra fe y a nuestro Dios. Nunca podemos fallar cuando seguimos a Jesús y a la Iglesia. Dios nunca nos ha fallado. Le fallamos a Dios cuando no lo seguimos. Cuando seguimos a Dios, cosecharemos fruto. Seremos listos e inteligentes (Deuteronomio 4:6). Sigamos siendo inteligentes y siguiendo nuestra fe y a Dios. Que el Señor los bendiga.

Learn about the International Eucharistic Miracles exhibition, conceived and designed by the Servant of God Carlo Acutis, at Msg. Cleary Hall in St. Ann:

April Fri. 26th from 3:30 pm to 7:00 pm
Sat. 27th from 10:00 am to 7:00 pm
Sun. 28th from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm

The Eucharistic Miracles exhibit was designed by a young man from Italy by Blessed Carlo Acutis to spread awareness of the Eucharistic Miracles around the world. Since the actual relics and miracles cannot travel, the exhibit consists of Vatican-approved text and photographs and is arranged like an art exhibit. Throughout Christian history, our Lord has shown us that he is really present as the Blessed Sacrament. Interestingly, many Eucharistic miracles have occurred during times of weakened Faith. For instance, many Eucharist miracles have taken place as a result of someone doubting the Real Presence. Most Eucharistic miracles involve incidences in which the Host has "turned into human flesh and blood". Of course we as Catholics believe that the consecrated Host is the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of our Lord, under the appearances of bread and wine. Therefore, Jesus, through these miracles, merely manifests His Presence in a more tangible way. The exhibit contains a display of around forty of the Eucharistic Miracles from many countries, including Lanciano, Italy and Santarem, Portugal. These two miracles are considered by many to be the most important miracles involving the Eucharist. The exhibit is offered for adults and children in English and Spanish. Admission is free for everyone and you can bring the whole family. Donations will be gratefully accepted to help us bring these miracles to as many people as possible.

La exposición de los Milagros Eucarísticos fue diseñada por un joven de Italia por el Beato Carlo Acutis para difundir el conocimiento de los Milagros Eucarísticos en todo el mundo. Dado que las reliquias y milagros reales no pueden viajar, la exposición consta de texto y fotografías aprobadas por el Vaticano y está organizada como una exposición de arte. A lo largo de la historia cristiana, nuestro Señor nos ha mostrado que Él está realmente presente como el Santísimo Sacramento. Curiosamente, muchos milagros eucarísticos han ocurrido durante tiempos de fe debilitada. Por ejemplo, muchos milagros de la Eucaristía han tenido lugar como resultado de que alguien dudara de la Presencia Real. La mayoría de los milagros eucarísticos involucran incidentes en los que la Hostia se ha "convertido en carne y sangre humana". Por supuesto, nosotros, como católicos, creemos que la Hostia consagrada es el Cuerpo, la Sangre, el Alma y la Divinidad de nuestro Señor, bajo las apariencias de pan y vino. Por lo tanto, Jesús, a través de estos milagros, simplemente manifiesta Su Presencia de una manera más tangible. La exposición contiene una muestra de alrededor de cuarenta milagros eucarísticos de muchos países, incluidos Lanciano, Italia y Santarem, Portugal. Estos dos milagros son considerados por muchos como los milagros más importantes relacionados con la Eucaristía. La exhibición se ofrece para adultos y niños en inglés y español. La entrada es gratuita para todo el mundo y se puede traer a toda la familia. Las donaciones serán aceptadas con gratitud para ayudarnos a llevar estos milagros a la mayor cantidad de personas posible.

Columbus

Knights of Columbus
Council #3199 Announcement

Ours is an organization which brings Catholic men and their families together for community service, fellowship, and mutual support. We meet here at the St. Ann parish, while continuing to be open to members from China Lake and other surrounding communities.

The Knights also provide affordable insurance protection to Catholic families; this is a core mission for us, a major reason for our founding. Our founder Father McGivney saw this as a critical need for working men and women in his parish, and we continue to serve communities with this service. So whether you are interested in serving the community or asking about what else we do, please contact your council's Grand Knight Sean Patrick at: (802) 431-5656 or write an email to KofC_council_3199@yahoo.com.

FOOD PANTRY FOR MILITARY

Military members are able to walk into the Religious Education building on Base and help themselves to whatever they need. When you do your grocery shopping, would you consider picking up a few nonperishable items to share with our young military families? Canned food, cereal, macaroni and cheese, peanut butter, pasta, rice, canned meats, diapers, and wipes are some suggestions. Have your child bring them to the parish hall on Tuesdays when they come to Religious Education classes, or bring them to the monthly High School Sunday evening Mass. Thank you for your generosity!
