(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
The Good Shepherd and the Wolf

I remember very clearly the first movie I watched during my pregnancy with my eldest child. In this film, there is a scene where a young boy is kidnapped and shoved into the back of a van guarded by vicious dogs. His mother persists in trying to free him, even as the dogs snap at her. Their bared teeth and full-throated snarls don't slow her efforts in the slightest. It wasn't a great movie or even a particularly great scene, but I'll never forget this scene. I'll never forget those dogs. I had just learned that I was a mother a few days ago. The life growing deep within seemed to me as frail as a whispered secret, but I loved it powerfully. I worried constantly if the baby was safe and healthy. I agonized over signs — real or imagined — that could tell me if the poppyseed-sized child was thriving or failing. I understood, for the first time in my life, why a woman would charge a pack of attack dogs without hesitation — not because she should, but because she has to. She could choose not to fight, certainly. She could walk away. But why would she? A future without her son is so much more painful than any physical wound. She may fear for her life, but she fears a life without her child so much more. The Good Shepherd discourse reveals to us the motivation behind God's actions throughout all of salvation history. From Adam to Noah to Abraham, all the way down to the time of the Messiah and beyond, He keeps trying to get us back. He keeps braving the attack dogs, time after time. He never stops. He never grows weary. And it baffles us: what's in it for Him? we wonder, because we are quicker to give up on ourselves than He is. Why does He keep trying? He could choose not to fight, sure. But why would He? He doesn't want a future without us. "I will lay down my life for the sheep." — John 10:11—@LPi

(PRACTICANDO) CATÓLICA: RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS
Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
El Buen Pastor y el Lobo

Recuerdo muy claramente la primera película que vi durante el embarazo de mi hijo mayor. En esta película, hay una escena en la que un niño es secuestrado y empujado a la parte trasera de una camioneta custodiada por perros feroces. Su madre persiste en intentar liberarlo, incluso cuando los perros la muerden. Sus dientes al descubierto y sus gruñidos no frenan sus esfuerzos en lo más mínimo. No fue una gran película ni siquiera una escena particularmente buena, pero nunca olvidaré esta escena. Nunca olvidaré a esos perros. Me acababa de enterar que era madre hacia unos días. La vida que crecía en lo más profundo de mí me parecía tan frágil como un secreto susurrado, pero la amaba poderosamente. Me preocupaba constantemente si el bebé estaba sano y salvo. Me angustiaban las señales, reales o imaginarias, que podrían decirme si el niño del tamaño de una semilla de amapola estaba prosperando o fracasando. Entendí, por primera vez en mi vida, por qué una mujer atacaría a una jauría de perros de ataque sin dudarle, no porque deba hacerlo, sino porque tiene que hacerlo. Ciertamente podría elegir no pelear. Ella podría marcharse. ¿Pero por qué lo haría? Un futuro sin su hijo es mucho más doloroso que cualquier herida física. Puede que tema por su vida, pero teme mucho más una vida sin su hijo. El discurso del Buen Pastor nos revela la motivación detrás de las acciones de Dios a lo largo de toda la historia de la salvación. Desde Adán hasta Noé y Abraham, hasta el tiempo del Mesías y más allá, Él sigue tratando de recuperarnos. Sigue desafiando a los perros de ataque, una y otra vez. Él nunca se detiene. Él nunca se cansa. Y nos desconcierta: ¿qué gana Él con esto? Nos preguntamos, porque somos más rápidos que Él para renunciar a nosotros mismos. ¿Por qué sigue intentándolo? Podría optar por no pelear, claro. ¿Pero por qué lo haría? No quiere un futuro sin nosotros. "Yo doy la vida por mis ovejas." — Juan 10:11—@LPi

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Greetings from Ridgecrest: Let us resume with the quotes from the priests' retreat: The next quote is, "Joy is the infallible sign of the presence of God (Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta)." When I think of joy, I remember it as one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit. The fruits of the Spirit are perfections that the Holy Spirit forms in us as the first fruits of eternal glory. The tradition of the Church lists twelve of them, and joy is one of them (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1832). According to Father Chad Ripperger, every lover takes joy in being joined to the beloved. Joy necessarily follows upon charity. Since charity always has God present, joy follows (Introduction to the Science of Mental Health 420). In addition, when I think of joy, I think of Easter and Christmas. Before these two seasons, two Latin words are used. In the fourth week of Lent, the word Laetare is used. In the third week of Advent, the word Gaudete is used. Both words mean to rejoice. The clergy wear the salmon or rose colors as their vestments. It is a time for joy. Easter is for the Resurrection and Christmas is for the birth of Christ. These are the most important liturgical seasons of the Church. It is this joy that God wants us to have. We can only have this joy if we have Christ in us. This means faith and grace. This means an intimate relationship with God. This means that I understand my faith, and I am living it. What is amazing is that joy is only one fruit of the twelve fruits of the Holy Spirit. This is how much God loves us. He gives us His entire being. Let us take advantage of God's goodness. May the Lord fill you with great joy. God bless.

Saludos desde Ridgecrest: Resumamos con las citas del retiro de los sacerdotes: La siguiente cita es: "La alegría es el signo infalible de la presencia de Dios (Santa Madre Teresa de Calcuta)". Cuando pienso en la alegría, la recuerdo como uno de los frutos del Espíritu Santo. Los frutos del Espíritu son perfecciones que el Espíritu Santo forma en nosotros como primicias de la gloria eterna. La tradición de la Iglesia enumera doce de ellos, y la alegría es uno de ellos (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica 1832). Según el padre Chad Ripperger, todo amante se alegra de estar unido a la amada. La alegría sigue necesariamente a la caridad. Dado que la caridad siempre tiene a Dios presente, la alegría sigue (Introducción a la Ciencia de la Salud Mental 420). Además, cuando pienso en la alegría, pienso en la Pascua y en la Navidad. Antes de estas dos estaciones, se usan dos palabras latinas. En la cuarta semana de Cuaresma, se usa la palabra Laetare (Alegrense). En la tercera semana de Adviento, se usa la palabra Gaudete. Ambas palabras significan regocijarse. Los clérigos visten los colores salmón o rosa como vestimentas. Es un tiempo para la alegría. La Pascua es para la Resurrección y la Navidad es para el nacimiento de Cristo. Estos son los tiempos litúrgicos más importantes de la Iglesia. Es este gozo el que Dios quiere que tengamos. Solo podemos tener este gozo si tenemos a Cristo en nosotros. Esto significa fe y gracia. Esto significa una relación íntima con Dios. Esto significa que entiendo mi fe y la estoy viviendo. Lo que es asombroso es que el gozo es solo un fruto de los doce frutos del Espíritu Santo. Esto es lo mucho que Dios nos ama. Él nos da todo Su ser. Aprovechemos la bondad de Dios. Que el Señor os llene de gran alegría. Dios los bendiga.

Learn about the International Eucharistic Miracles exhibition, conceived and designed by the Servant of God Carlo Acutis, at Msg. Cleary Hall in St. Ann:

April Fri. 26th from 3:30 pm to 7:00 pm
Sat. 27th from 10:00 am to 7:00 pm
Sun. 28th from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm

The Eucharistic Miracles exhibit was designed by a young man from Italy by Blessed Carlo Acutis to spread awareness of the Eucharistic Miracles around the world. Since the actual relics and miracles cannot travel, the exhibit consists of Vatican-approved text and photographs and is arranged like an art exhibit. Throughout Christian history, our Lord has shown us that he is really present as the Blessed Sacrament. Interestingly, many Eucharistic miracles have occurred during times of weakened Faith. For instance, many Eucharist miracles have taken place as a result of someone doubting the Real Presence. Most Eucharistic miracles involve incidences in which the Host has "turned into human flesh and blood". Of course we as Catholics believe that the consecrated Host is the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of our Lord, under the appearances of bread and wine. Therefore, Jesus, through these miracles, merely manifests His Presence in a more tangible way. The exhibit contains a display of around forty of the Eucharistic Miracles from many countries, including Lanciano, Italy and Santarem, Portugal. These two miracles are considered by many to be the most important miracles involving the Eucharist. The exhibit is offered for adults and children in English and Spanish. Admission is free for everyone and you can bring the whole family. Donations will be gratefully accepted to help us bring these miracles to as many people as possible.

La exposición de los Milagros Eucarísticos fue diseñada por un joven de Italia por el Beato Carlo Acutis para difundir el conocimiento de los Milagros Eucarísticos en todo el mundo. Dado que las reliquias y milagros reales no pueden viajar, la exposición consta de texto y fotografías aprobadas por el Vaticano y está organizada como una exposición de arte. A lo largo de la historia cristiana, nuestro Señor nos ha mostrado que Él está realmente presente como el Santísimo Sacramento. Curiosamente, muchos milagros eucarísticos han ocurrido durante tiempos de fe debilitada. Por ejemplo, muchos milagros de la Eucaristía han tenido lugar como resultado de que alguien dudara de la Presencia Real. La mayoría de los milagros eucarísticos involucran incidentes en los que la Hostia se ha "convertido en carne y sangre humana". Por supuesto, nosotros, como católicos, creemos que la Hostia consagrada es el Cuerpo, la Sangre, el Alma y la Divinidad de nuestro Señor, bajo las apariencias de pan y vino. Por lo tanto, Jesús, a través de estos milagros, simplemente manifiesta Su Presencia de una manera más tangible. La exposición contiene una muestra de alrededor de cuarenta milagros eucarísticos de muchos países, incluidos Lanciano, Italia y Santarem, Portugal. Estos dos milagros son considerados por muchos como los milagros más importantes relacionados con la Eucaristía. La exhibición se ofrece para adultos y niños en inglés y español. La entrada es gratuita para todo el mundo y se puede traer a toda la familia. Las donaciones serán aceptadas con gratitud para ayudarnos a llevar estos milagros a la mayor cantidad de personas posible.

Knights of Columbus

Knights of Columbus Council #3199 Announcement

Ours is an organization which brings Catholic men and their families together for community service, fellowship, and mutual support. We meet here at the St. Ann parish, while continuing to be open to members from China Lake and other surrounding communities.

The Knights also provide affordable insurance protection to Catholic families; this is a core mission for us, a major reason for our founding. Our founder Father McGivney saw this as a critical need for working men and women in his parish, and we continue to serve communities with this service. So whether you are interested in serving the community or asking about what else we do, please contact your council's Grand Knight Sean Patrick at: (802) 431-5656 or write an email to KofC_council_3199@yahoo.com.

PRAYER BLANKETS & JESUS MEETING Sat., May 4th, 12 to 2 p.m

Please join us on Sat., May 4th, from Noon to 2 p.m. for a meeting in the multipurpose room in the Parish Center. We will have fabric cut into 1-yard pieces and if you can, bring your sewing machine, and there will be a cutting table and an ironing table available. There are a lot of jobs that can be done at home. Sewing cotton fabric to flannel fabric, 36 inches by 45 inches, and sewing on the prayer to the blanket. Come check us out. We really need help. Just commit to making one blanket would be wonderful. Please RSVP. If we don't have enough attending, we will cancel the meeting. Please contact Susie Jensen, 760-608-0459, or Susan McDonald, 760-382-3542, for more information and to RSVP.

FOOD PANTRY FOR MILITARY

Military members are able to walk into the Religious Education building on Base and help themselves to whatever they need. When you do your grocery shopping, would you consider picking up a few nonperishable items to share with our young military families? Canned food, cereal, macaroni and cheese, peanut butter, pasta, rice, canned meats, diapers, and wipes are some suggestions. Have your child bring them to the parish hall on Tuesdays when they come to Religious Education classes, or bring them to the monthly High School Sunday evening Mass. Thank you for your generosity!
